RECENT OPERATIONS

By Paul Rardin

I wish I knew enough words with enough meaning, to send Christmas greetings to every person I know. Then, too, there are a lot of folks I don't know who have been nice to me in more ways than one, and, I want them to get a friendly greeting at this glad yuletide season. There are so many things for which to be thankful and listed high among them are two outstanding in my mind: Health and Friends. One wouldn't be any good without the other. So at this Christmas season of 1948 I think the simple wish of "Merry Christmas" will express what is on my mind. It surely is a sincere wish and sincerity is something which cannot be overlooked in this day of hurly-burly everyday living.

Young Coleman's Body To Arrive In Savannah

The body of Pvt. Eliaba E. Coleman, Jr., who was killed in action in France on Dec. 3, 1944, is being shipped to Savannah, Ga., for interment, according to word received from the War Department Tuesday by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Coleman, of Pahokee.

Eliaba was a graduate of Pahokee High School, Class of 1940, and received a BS degree at the University of Florida in 1943. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Health Unit Director To Be PTA Speaker

Program Chairman Osceola Upthegrove of the Canal Point PTA said yesterday that Dr. Burton F. Austin, director of the county health unit, has been invited to address members of the group at the regular January meeting to be held on Monday, January 2nd.

Dr. Austin is a forceful speaker and citizens of Pahokee and Canal Point are cordially invited to hear him tell of the wonderful work now being done by the recently organized county health unit in Palm Beach county. Mr. Upthegrove and members of the PTA urge a large attendance for the meeting.

Old Barn Replaced By New One, Pahokee

Another eyesore—the old city barn next door to the Pahokee waterworks—has been razed. All useable lumber in it has been salvaged and used in construction of a new city barn in the Friend subdivision, according to Street Supt. Marvin Cowart.

The new barn in the new location gives the city much more room for equipment storage and a place also to store road and street materials. The major portion of the work was done by city forces under the direction of Mr. Cowart.

New Airport Work Making Progress

Williams and Stockton, Miami contractors, successful bidders on the new Glades-Palm Beach County Airport on Bacom Point, moved in last Thursday and started work. Heavy earth moving machines and bull dozers have completely changed the looks of Bacom Point where the new airport is being built.

Several old buildings used as quarters by the Johnsons will be moved in the next few days in order not to retard construction efforts of the contractor. One airplane hanger, owned by Victor L. Geiger and another owned by Z. A. Geiger will be moved immediately, according to word from the county engineer's office, under whose direction the airport is being built.

Several aviators have asked questions about landing fees, storage costs and various and sundry other fees connected with the airport. These fees will be worked out by the county aviation director and the county commission and announced in plenty of time before completion of the field.

One site has been designated by the county and CAA for hangars. These, of course, will have to meet certain and definite specifications. Plans will be available later.

Auto Tags Available At Lake Shore Motor

1949 Automobile tags are available in Pahokee in the office of the Lake Shore Motor Company (Dodge and Plymouth) on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of each week, according to an announcement by Tax Collector Stetson O. Sproul. On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday the tags are available in Belle Glade, Mr. Sproul said. January 15 is the deadline for purchasing tags.

Young McIntosh Is Staff Sergeant

Kenneth McIntosh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. McIntosh of Pahokee, is home from Military Academy at St. Petersburg for the holidays. Before leaving for Pahokee young McIntosh (he's seven years old) was informed by his superiors that he had been advanced to Staff Sergeant, an advancement brought about by his diligence of study and excellence in military curriculum.

Rardin Lieut-Colonel On Gov. Warren Staff

County Commissioner Paul Rardin has been named a Lieutenant-Colonel on the official staff of the incoming governor, Fuller Warren. In appointing the Canal Point newspaper man Governor-Elect Warren wrote: "I shall consider it an honor if you will accept an honorary commission as lieutenant colonel on my official staff."

Rardin said he had written the incoming governor that "it would be a genuine pleasure and honor" to accept the appointment. His official certificate of appointment will arrive in Canal Point soon after the first of the year.

Farewell Party For The Tony Libharts

Mrs. Wiley Tillis and Mrs. Geo. B. Ramey entertained at Mrs. Ramey's home Sunday evening with a surprise farewell party honoring Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Libhart who are moving soon to North Florida where Mr. Libhart will assume his new duties as supervisor of the State Hospital at Raiford on Jan. 1.

The Christmas motif, featuring arrangements of poinsettias and floor baskets of gladioli, was used in decorations. Homer J. Clause led in the singing of carols with Mrs. H. C. Graham at the piano. A message of farewell and a gift was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Libhart by B. Elliott in behalf of the group of friends present. Dr. B. A. Bowers led in the prayer.

The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. H. J. Clause and Mrs. A. E. Morgan, with the serving of refreshments of fruit cake and coffee. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Homer Barnes and daughter, Stella Sue, Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Keen and children, Effie Lou and Buddy, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Keen and daughter, Vera, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Speer, Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Carlton, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Belk, Mrs. and Mrs. Thomas Baldwin, Mrs. Josh Crews, Mrs. B. A. Bowers, Mrs. B. Elliott, C. A. Batchelor, Rev. A. J. Lively, Wiley Tillis, G. B. Ramey and Miss Phoebe Ann Ramey.

BOARD TO MEET

The executive board of the WSCS in Pahokee will meet Monday afternoon at 3 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Hugo Boe.

Parties And Social Gatherings Mark Christmas Season In The Everglades

Social activities in these parts have been at a feverish pitch for the past several days with residents scurrying here and there to round after round of parties. It seems that just about everyone gave some kind of party in celebration of the Christmas season. We can only list a few.

Prior to the close of school last Friday afternoon for the holiday vacation the children of Pahokee and Canal Point schools were entertained at various class parties given by room mothers and teachers. Decorated trees were the center of attraction and gifts were exchanged among the children.

In keeping with a long-established custom the various churches of Pahokee and Canal Point conducted parties and Christmas programs for the entertainment of the children of their Sunday schools. These parties were held in the church auditoriums on evenings of this week and, of course, the climax at each of these affairs was the arrival of Santa Claus with a bag overflowing with treats of candy, fruit and nuts for the kiddies.

The Philathea Class held a party at the First Baptist Sunday school building Monday evening with members of the losing team in the recent membership contest acting as hostesses. Gifts were exchanged among members and Mrs. B. A. Bowers was honored with a shower of gifts. Mrs. H. C. Graham led in the playing of games and refreshments were served to 32.

Santa Brings Many Gifts To Rotarians

Santa Claus (in person) visited the Pahokee Rotary club yesterday at noon and distributed presents from the handsome Christmas tree which decorated the head table. Elmer Jones, hard-working Rotarian, was in charge of the program and personally contacted Santa Claus to see that he made the visit to the club.

H. E. McCoy, formerly of Titusville and Daytona Beach, has assumed his new duties as freight and express agent at the Pahokee-Canal Point station of the Florida East Coast Railway Co. H. L. Carter, who served as local FEC agent for the past year, asked for and received a transfer to night duty at the Pahokee-Canal Point station.

Miss Patsy Elliott entertained at the Elks Hall Tuesday night with a dance party honoring members of the Pahokee High School football squad, members of the Senior Class and college students home on vacation. Music was furnished by an orchestra from West Palm Beach. The hostess was assisted by her parents, Mr. and Mr. B. Elliott.

Members of the Mary Martha Circle, First Methodist WSCS, enjoyed a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Boynton Friday evening. Contests were played and carols were sung, with Mr. Boynton in charge of the entertainment.

Mrs. C. T. Jackson was hostess at a party for members of St. Martha's Guild held at her home on Monday night. Gifts were exchanged from a decorated tree. The Pahokee Senior Girl Scout Troop enjoyed a party Tuesday afternoon which featured a cook-out at the home of Mrs. H. M. McIntosh followed by the serving of refreshments at the home of Mrs. O. R. Bleech.

Members of the Everglades Business and Professional Woman's Club, bizarrely dressed as comic strip characters, held their annual Christmas party at Cypress Lodge Tuesday night. The lodge was beautifully decorated for the affair and gifts were exchanged from a decorated tree. Hostesses were Mrs. Hazel Chastain, Mrs. Violet Hall and Mrs. Doris Sasser.

Gifts were also exchanged from a decorated tree at a party held by members of the Gertrude Shirley Circle, First Methodist WSCS, at the home of Mrs. E. L. Pope Monday night. Mrs. Pope was assisted by the entertaining by Mrs. W. E. Pope and Mrs. Glen Abling.

The Senior Methodist Youth Fellowship group enjoyed a barbecue on the lawn of the Pahokee church Tuesday evening following the packaging of treats for the smaller children. Mrs. L. J. Fraser acted as hostess.

Mrs. Lewis Friend was hostess at a Christmas and birthday party honoring her daughter, Cindy, at their home on Bacom Point Road Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Orin S. Bacon, Jr., were hosts Thursday night at a Christmas party and barbecue observed annually by a group of friends for the past six years. Gifts were exchanged. Eleven couples were invited.

Fuller Announces His Sunday Texts

"On Taking a Spiritual Inventory" will be the New Year's sermon message of Rev. Ralph Fuller at the 10:50 service at Canal Point Methodist Church Sunday.

The evening service will follow the form of a Galilee service at Sunset Beach, Canal Point.

This will be a service for all with special emphasis upon Youth. All youth from 12 to 25 are asked to occupy the first rows of chairs. The Pastor will bring a message of special concern to the young people on "Spiritual Commencement". Those playing musical instruments are invited to aid in the service. A current expense offering will be taken. Those who can help move chairs and firewood report at Sunday School building at 4 p. m. Sunday.

Mrs. Maribelle Rawls will spend Christmas with her mother, Mrs. Roe Rives, in High Springs.

Annual Party For Circle In Pahokee

Members of the Simonson-Lair Circle, First Methodist WSCS, conducted their annual Christmas party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Anderson Monday night.

Featured on the program of entertainment was a mock radio broadcast in which Mrs. J. R. York acted as announcer. Mrs. York interviewed Santa Claus who was impersonated by Rev. C. T. Howes; Mrs. L. W. Armstrong read "Tuesday Morning Headlines"; Mrs. R. J. Schroder gave a fireside chat on "How to Manage Your Husband at Christmastime"; Mrs. M. P. Holman gave a poem version of Dickens' "Christmas Carol"; and Mrs. Arch Blakey and Miss Frances Howell sang the theme song, "The Old Gray Mare." The program was interrupted from time to time by "commercials" almost as corny as those actually heard on the air.

Christmas music was sung by a male quartet composed of R. J. Schroder, T. L. Burns, Ronald Watson and M. P. Holman, by a ladies quartet, Mrs. C. T. Howes, Mrs. O. D. Carpenter, Mrs. R. F. Hurt and Mrs. T. L. Burns, and by a mixed quartet, Mrs. C. A. Shive, Mrs. L. J. Fraser, C. F. Howes and Ronald Watson. Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Padgett were in charge of the entertainment.

Gifts were exchanged from a decorated tree. Husbands of members were guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Harris and daughter, Faye, and John Strickland of Belle Glade will be the dinner guests of Mrs. Harris's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Clause, Christmas Day.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Dutch Miller's Back In Uniform

After ten days in the city, Dutch is back in uniform. I don't mean Army khaki or Navy blue—but a different uniform, that's every bit as patriotic and American.

Blue jeans and a denim shirt, for work around the yards and barns; stout boots for tramping through the fields; and a straw hat when the sun gets high—a uniform you see from Maine to Texas, Iowa to Alabama.

It's the uniform of an army—the great army of American farmers who, by their productivity, are helping to keep this nation strong—bolstering the forces of democracy that guard our freedom.

And in their way of life, too, they are champions of freedom. Temperate folk who enjoy a moderate glass of beer—but never quarrel with those who prefer cider. Tolerant people who fight to the bitter end against oppression and intolerance. From where I sit, a credit to America!

Christmas Party Today At 3:30 P. M.

The big community Christmas party for children of the Pahokee-Canal Point area, sponsored by the Lions Club in cooperation with other civic groups, will get underway this Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock with the arrival of Santa Claus by plane on the airstrip at the Pahokee lake front. Treats will be distributed to the boys and girls and all children are invited to be present, according to announcements made at the annual Christmas dinner meeting of the Lions Club Tuesday.

The club voted to send a Christmas truckload of Glades-grown vegetables to Jack Bell's "Lend A Hand Fund" in Miami. A letter was read from Coach Clyde Alley thanking the Lions for the dinner which they recently gave for the Pahokee High School Blue Devil football squad.

On the program Dr. Elmo B. Scoggin, pastor of the Canal Point Baptist Church, gave an inspiring talk on "The Spirit of Christmas."

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Byrd, Sr., accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Elarbee of Fort Lauderdale, have gone to Tallahassee to spend the holidays with relatives in that area.

CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

"CHRISTIAN SCIENCE" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world on Sunday, December 26.

The Golden Text is: "Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mountain of his holiness" (Psalms 48:1).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Another parable spake he unto them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened" (Matthew 13:33).

The lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Did not this parable point a moral with a prophecy, foretelling the second appearing in the flesh of the Christ, Truth, hidden in sacred secrecy from the visible world? Ages pass, but this leaven of Truth is ever at work. It must destroy the entire mass of error, and so be eternally glorified in man's spiritual freedom" (118:6-12).

Quite a novel treat has been arranged for the first 125 ladies to arrive at the Prince Theatre and purchase a ticket this Sunday-Monday, when "The Fuller Brush Man" with Red Skelton and Janet Blair is screened.

The management of the Gold-Dobrow Theatres announce they have arranged with the Fuller Brush Company to present 125 Fuller Brushes free to the ladies Sunday and 75 brushes Monday with the compliments of the Fuller Brush Company and the theatre. Of course it will be a case of first come first served. It would be wisdom to go early.

"The Fuller Brush Man", which moves over from the Hugo Theatre, Belle Glade, will fairly rock the theatre with laughter when it is shown here. It has been said by leading columnists that this is positively the funniest show Mr. Skelton has presented since he has been in pictures.

Besides Mr. Skelton and Janet Blair, the stars, the picture boasts a clever cast of featured players with Don McGuire and Hillary Brooke in prominent roles.

Mrs. Morris Baxter has joined her husband in Orlando where he is now employed.

Miss Jean Cruthirds, Gainesville, and Miss Joyce Peacock, Jacksonville, have arrived to spend the holidays with their parents in Pahokee.

Mrs. A. A. Cobb of Graceville, Fla., arrived Monday to spend the season with her daughter, Mrs. J. P. Herring, and family in Pahokee.

Christmas Greetings

As the wonderful, star-crowned story of Christmas moves once more through our lives, there is no one of us who is not conscious of the inexpressible divinity of the season. It is a time to be generous, a time for deep happiness, a time for neighborliness and good will towards all.

Through The Years The Idea of Exchanging Gifts At Christmas Has Become Firmly Entrenched As An American Custom

May The Good Year 1948 Allow Each
Of You To Rejoice In The Exchange
Of Gifts Which Will Make Your Hearts Happy

Just for a minute, we relive
all the joys and raptures of childhood as we behold the bright tinsel and the gay wrappings of the boxes stacked high under the Christmas tree.

May your gift be an assurance that all your most cherished dreams and hopes will be realized—that is our wish for you at this happy Yuletide season.

Merry
Christmas
